

Sinclair Broadcast Group must not be allowed to thumb their noses at federal election laws in a blatant partisan attempt to use their corporate broadcast position to influence the presidential election. Nothing I can imagine undermines the authority of the FCC or the press more. Stop worrying about Janet Jackson's breast or the occasional curse words and bring true fairness, righteousness and decency to the airwaves. Do not be bought or intimidated by ANY "corporate" interest including the current administration